S.no	Particulars	Remarks
1	Topic of the research study	Work Related Burnout Among Women Academics in the New Normal
2	Objectives of the study	To ascertain the influence of Job Demands, Lack of Job Resources and Work life Conflict on the work-related burnout of women faculty members in higher education.
3	Purpose of the study	This paper attempts to study the relationship between work related burnout and its stressors among women working in private colleges during the new normal
4	Impact of the study	The findings of the study have a significant implication for higher education that may alleviate burnout among women faculty
5	Findings	The study shows that Workload, Lack of Job Resources and Work life conflict has a definite impact on burnout. Among these variables, Workload has the highest influence while Lack of Job Resources has the least influence
6	General observation	Women faculty burnout is mainly caused by increased workload
7	Outcome of the study	-Academics experience much higher burnout rates than the general population due to ever-increasing demands for productivity, not just with respect to teaching but also for research and service work, such as serving on committees and organizing conferences. The need to rapidly shift courses to remote instruction and meet research and service obligations while also 'working' from home has further intensified the already demanding conditions of academic work.

REVIEW ON FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER SCIENCE

DATE: 27-10-2020

TIME: 3.00-5.00 PM

COLLEGE: ST ANNE'S COLLEGE

PARTICIPANTS: 5 (BCA FACULTIES)

MODE: ZOOM

1. TOPIC: A STUDY ON ARTIFICIAL NEURAL NETWORKS ARCHITECTURE AND ALGORITHMS

PRESENTER: MARINA.B

Faculty presented her paper with much enthusiasm. The selection of topic is relevant for the current technological functionalities. She presented it with a well-versed articulation. The use of algorithm is applicable and pragmatic. She has a deep understanding of the topic that she dealt with.

2. TOPIC: CURRENT TRENDS AND CHALLENGES IN IMAGE PROCESSING RESEARCH

PRESENTER: NEHA MANTRI

Faculty has presented ideas on image processing perfectly. Oration of the ideas came out ideally well. Conception of the ideas were pragmatically presented, however there is much scope and space for improvement, considering algorithm for explanation will be better.

3. TOPIC : ANDROID OS : MOBILE COMPUTING LEADS TO AN OPEN SOURCE MOVEMENT

PRESENTER : PRADEEPA.M

Faculty presented the paper on Android OS : Mobile computing . The presentation gives a different perspective on the functionalities of Android OS. Faculty should have maintained a good rapport with the way she presented and should have given a deeper understanding on the topic.

4.TOPIC: CLOUD COMPUTING TECHNOLOGY IN AGRICULTURE FIELD

PRESENTER : REKHA

Faculty has presented the paper well. The topic is somewhat an out of the box thought, considering selection of the topic and the way ideas were disseminated is quite impractical plus the feasibility to improve the idea needs a deeper understanding.

5. TOPIC : A SMART TEXTING SYSTEM FOR ANDROID MOBILE USERS

PRESENTER: EVA SANDHYA RAJ

Faculty has chosen a brilliant topic which was rather interesting at the same time needed a deeper understanding of the topic, speech recognition idea has to be established even better than to be abstract, however the faculty's ideas are appreciable, there is much space and scope for the explanation part of her presentation and more details were anticipated.

2-DAY FACULTY RESEARCH PROGRAMME

A BRIEF REPORT

ON THE RESEARCH PAPER PRESENTATION SESSION HELD ON 28.10.2020

It gives me an immense pleasure to say that, the day on the very hard working faculty of your college were presented their Research Papers online using the cisco-webex platform, excellently. During this current situation of Covid-19 pandemic, the faculties gave their best and to-the-mark effort through their research papers. I'm very much glad to give a small observatory report as being the part of this above said event as a Chairperson for the FRP of Day-2.

Firstly, for the Paper Title –

“A MATHEMATICAL MODEL STUDY OF COVID-19 PANDEMIC IN INDIA”

- By Ms. Mary Shaila F, Asst. Prof., Dept. OF Mathematics

Nicely explained and presented the concept of the paper with the new and current topic based by using the Mathematical Models to study the disease dynamics, identifying the influential parameters, prevention strategies for reduction outbreak size, and further formulation of a deterministic compartmental model to study the spreading of COVID-19 and tried to estimate the model parameters by fitting the model with reported data of ongoing pandemic in India. Also, analysing in terms of establishing a formula on identifying the influential model parameters, positive measures to control the disease were thoughtfully discussed during the presentation with some conversations.

Secondly, for the Paper Title –

“A REVIEW ON MICROSCOPY CHARACTERIZATION OF CARBON NANOTUBES GROWN AT DIFFERENT TEMPERATURES”

- By SINDHULS, ASSISTANT PROFESSOR, DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS

Well explained and presented the concept of the paper with the concept related on the Carbon NanoTubes (CNT's) which represents an unique inventions in the field of Nanotechnology, presenting this article with synthesized in a temperature range of 750°C to 1000°C. The structural morphology was observed using SEM and TEM methods, also using Raman Spectroscopy, etc. Here mainly, observed that a morphological change and lastly found a conclusion as it will increase with temperature, these above said concept and theme were discussed with some queries and some conversations.

Next, for the Paper Title –

“A REVIEW ON MATHEMATICAL MODEL FOR THE STUDY OF TRAFFIC FLOW ON THE HIGHWAYS”

- By NAVYA R Assistant Professor, Department of Mathematics

Nicely presented this paper using Mathematical Model especially on Traffic Flow on the Highways. Here, the effect of the density of the vehicles with distance of the road concept was tried to investigate by the author. And the same concept were discussed in detail by the author that to using application side of mathematics were observed during the presentation.

Next, for the Paper Title –

“CREATIVE THINKING IN PHYSICS EDUCATION: A BETTER DRIVE FOR ECONOMIC GROWTH”

- By M.SAVITHA, Assistant Professor, Department of Physics

This Presentation was quite different as compared with Physics related topic, author of this paper explained all the aspects neatly. Thoughtfully, the concept of creative thinking in physics education, its role towards economic growth and problems facing creative thinking in physics education, discussed during the presentation. Further, including environmental, energy issues to enhance creative thinking in the students are also explained well in the path of economic growth.

Next, for the Paper Title –

“DECOLORIZATION OF TEXTILE EFFLUENT USING MICROBES”

- By Ms. Sindhu R, Assistant Professor, Department of Mathematics

In this paper the author was tried to very much interesting theme of Decolorization as Effect of color in Dyeing process. Some aspects and results were explained and discussed excellently, like, Reason behind difficulty in removing dye from waste water, Ill effects of textile effluent, Micro bacterial decolorizations and degradation of textile dyes, Role of actinomycetes in decolorization, Factors affecting Microbial dye decolorization. Presentation was good.

Next, for the Paper Title –

“Impact of Information Communication Technology (ICT) Application on Library Services”

- By RAVI.H, Assistant Librarian, Dept of Library and Information Science

Here, the author gave an excellent presentation on Growths in ICT towards the applications on Library Services. In fact, the technological convergence has brought about an enormous impact. Some points were discussed deeply, like use of e-mail, cellular phones at home and in the workstation and society, business, education, military, recreation, transportation, communication, scientific exploration, information administration, etc. In an overall observation, here the author was explained nicely with the budget based concepts.

Last and Final, for the Paper Title –
“YOGA FOR PHYSICAL AND MENTAL HEALTH “IN DAILY LIFE”

By Mr. KRISHNA S, Physical Education Director

The presenter here explained nicely and practically by describing nearly eight levels of development using Yoga in Daily Life in the areas of physical, mental, social and spiritual health. Here, the concept of the regulation of inhalation and exhalation is accomplished by eliminating the pause between inhalation and exhalation or expending it by retention was discussed deeply. Lastly, the author was giving more importance on Pranayama-Resulting into control of lungs, heart, vagus nerve, etc. quite good.

In my view as a Chairperson of the Paper presentation session, here all the above authors were presented their research papers excellently towards the applications side of each and individual subjects. Hence, once again i extend my wishes and congratulate them for the success.

On behalf of St. Anne's Degree College, we would like to thank you for your kind presence for sharing your valuable time to give a lecture on "New Generation Nuclear Reactors" in our National Webinar, organised by the Department of Physics.

The presentation was highly effective. We believe that the knowledge you shared about stages of nuclear reactors was very informative and will immensely motivate the students to develop interest in the field of nuclear physics. It was an honor for our institution to have you as one of the resource persons.

We appreciate you for sharing your professional skills and subject expertise with us. We look forward to your support in the future events.

With warm regards,

The resource person for the Programme was S Balamurali, Assistant Professor, Department BBA, DG Vaishnav College, Chennai. The main objective of this Training Session was to cater to the faculty members the guidelines and step-by-step module for the preparation of NTA-NET Exam.

UGC-NET stands for the University Grant Commission National Eligibility Test conducted by NTA (National Testing Agency) twice a year to determine the eligibility of post-graduate aspirants about a particular subject for the post of Assistant Professor or JRF (Junior Research Fellowship).

UGC NET Exam Pattern:

UGC NET Exam pattern consists of two objective papers.

- UGC NET Paper-I (General Paper on Teaching and Research Aptitude) is common and mandatory for all aspirants. It is intended to improve the skills relating to Reasoning, General Knowledge, Teaching aptitude, Research aptitude and General mathematical expertise.
- UGC NET paper-II the subject for paper-II needs to be chosen by the aspirant. An aspirant can choose the subject of his/her post-graduation or a related subject. NTA Conducts the UGC NET Exam for a total of 81 subjects.

Suggestions:

The training was very professional and provided a lot of tips to crack UGC NET Exam. Looking forward for more quality sessions like this. Appreciate the efforts. Required to solve more problems in Data Interpretation and sample question paper can be provided for everyone. Could be given on paper 2 also. More similar session can be organised. Little bit of detailed explanation of theoretical and English language. Overall it was a good interactive session. The resource person explained well. Specially short cut methods of solving mathematical problems. Some more mathematical and data interpretation questions to be solved. CSIR topics also to be covered.

Day 2 (Tuesday – 22nd June 2020)

Topic: Using Selenium IDE for Testing Web Application

(<https://stannes1.webex.com/stannes1/j.php?MTID=m7fed1fa85a8688e69bfd3cf317e0e307>)

Second Day session started at 3:00PM, by welcoming the delegates Ms.Neha Mantri was the MC and host for the day 2 session, and the speaker was Prof.(Dr) Madhwaraj Kango Gopal, on the continuity of the day one session sir gave hands on experience on working with Selenium IDE, he explained the naming convention for placing project title which plays a major role and the steps involved during the test cases are,

- Launch Firefox browser.
- Click on the Selenium icon present on the top right corner on to your browser.
- It will launch the default interface of Selenium IDE.
- Enter the project name as "Stanntc1".
- Enter the test case name as "Search Test".
- Click on the command text box present on the Test Script Editor Box.
- Modify the properties of First command as:
 - a) Command : open
 - b) Target : <https://www.way2sms.com>
 - c) During execution of the test case, this command will load the Google search engine web page on your Firefox browser.

A Selenium IDE test suite is a set of tests in a project that are run together as a single entity. With the use of Selenium IDE he explained how the test cases are tested for zero error. whenever the test cases are passed, the comments are converted or gets highlighted with green color . if the test cases are failed its highlighted with red color.

The day 2 session ended with questionere and vote of thank by First year BCA student Ms.Shalini A.S and feedback link was posted in chat box. "<https://forms.gle/BHDNvaUTc2rFDW1H8>"

Third Day session started at 3:00PM, by welcoming the delegates Ms.Neha Mantri was the MC and host for the day 3 session, and the speaker for the day was Prof. (Dr) Madhwaraj Kango Gopal he continued his demo session on how to install the Server-Selenium Driver. Selenium is a collection of open-source APIs which are used to automate the testing of a web application. Selenium WebDriver tool is used to automate the web application testing to verify that it works as expected. It supports many browsers such as Firefox, Chrome, IE, and Safari. The steps to be followed while installing the web driver such as.

- 1) Check computer OS bit size (Ex 32bit, 64bit)
- 2) Download JDK8(Ex JDK x86 32 bit)
- 3) Go to JDK folder
- 4) Copy the path of JDK folder (Ex: C:\ProgramFiles\Java\JDK1.8.0)
- 5) Right Click on MyComputer Icon
- 6) Go to Properties of your system
- 7) Advanced System Settings
- 8) Environment Variables

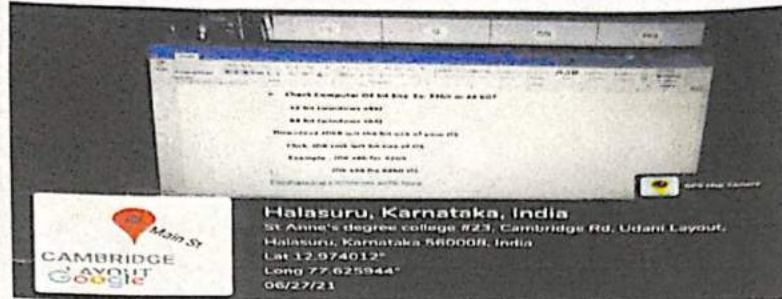

He also explained about executing a test script using WebDriver.

Day 4(Friday – 24th June 2020)
Topic: Machine Learning Algorithm

Fourth Day session started at 3:00PM , by welcoming the delegates Ms.Marina was the MC and host for the day 4 session the speaker was Mr.Premnanjan Biswas (Data Analyst, Corporate Trainer, Big Data and Statistics Department of Reserve Bank of India under the supervision of Computer Society of India, Calcutta). He gave brief introduction about Machine learning algorithms, Machine learning (ML) algorithms are broadly categorized as either supervised or unsupervised.

He gave brief note to python as it is a powerful, flexible, open – source language that is easy to learn and has powerful libraries for data manipulation and analysis.He gave difference between Anaconda Distribution and other Python IDE tools A brief explanation about the difference between the concept of supervised and unsupervised algorithm and the use of essential python libraries.

He showed an hands on experience on Jupyter IDE the working of Python Programming . The fourth day session ended with the questionnaire and vote of thanks was given by Ms.Pradeepa and feedback link was posted in the chat box.

Day 5(Friday – 25th June 2020) Topic: Machine Learning Algorithm Using Python

Fifthth Day session started at 3:00PM , by welcoming the delegates Ms.Eva Sandhya Raj I was the MC and host for the day 5 session ,the speaker was Mr.Premanjan Biswas, he started a session with the explanation of linear regression analysis where we can use the predictable model to our data and use that model to predict values to the dependent variables from one or more independent , he also told how to draw a straight line on a graph .
He explained different machine learning algorithms which includes multiple regression, logistic regression model.

He also showed how to evaluate the model, and explained the model summary in detail. Sir, explained about decision tree algorithm also.

He also addressed the topic on Tree Based algorithm in pyhton and how does it work with an example (split on gender and split on height).

The fifth day session ended with questionnaire session and vote of thanks was given by Ms.Marina B, where HOD thanked the management, principal, Speakers and peer team members of Department of Computer Applications and thanked all the delegates who had actively participated for all the five days of workshop, further feedback link was posted on to the chatbox and the E Certificates was sent to each delegates via e mail.

2. Multiple Linear Regression

Conceptualized Evaluation of Straight Lines

A straight line can be defined by two things

- 1) The slope or gradient of the line (m)
- 2) The point at which the line crosses the vertical axis of the graph, also known as the intercept of the line (b)

So our general equation for a line is:

$$Y = (m \cdot X) + b$$

Here Y is the dependent variable and X is the independent variable. The slope (m) is the gradient of the line. The intercept (b) is the point at which the line crosses the vertical axis of the graph. The regression line is the line of best fit for the data points. It is the line that best describes the relationship between the independent and dependent variables. The regression line is used to predict the value of the dependent variable from the value of the independent variable.

Dear Dr. K. G Madhwaraj,

Greetings from Department of Computer Applications, St. Anne's Degree College for women, Bangalore-8.

We deem it a pleasure to invite you to be the resource person for the "Five days National Level Faculty Development workshop on Software Testing through Selenium and Python" to be held on 21st June to 25th June 2020 at 3.00 p.m. The Faculty Development Programme is organized to give the faculty hands-on experience on the recent trends.

It is indeed an honor to have you impart knowledge to our Faculties in the area of subject mentioned above.

We look forward to your positive confirmation on the above mentioned date. Kindly attach your profile for further documentation.

Thank You and Warm Regards,

Marina.B

It was interesting to learn and nice to meet all of them sir
It was easy to understand and there is no any suggestions.
Suggest for seminar as same with different circumstances

It was interesting bt can finish the session soon

If it was done In offline it could be more useful

All the best ನಿಮ್ ಮಾತು ಗಲ್ಲು ನೆಗೆ ತುಂಬ ಇಷ್ಟ ಆಯ್ತು

If it was offline it would have been convenient

Conduct this type of programmes again and agian

Webinars must be conduct in further classes

Was an informative and interesting session
