Mrs.VIJAYALAKSHMI PAL is the resource person; she has 19 years of teaching experience. She taught in Colleges and schools. She has completed MA in English Literature from Annamalai University and a B Ed from Loreto College Calcutta. She is being connected with TIME from the year 2008 training students for CAT, GMAT, GRE, BANK PO and Placements (Campus Recruitment Program). She is passionate about teaching and relate to students very well and her energy level is infectious.

Highlights of Career guidance and opportunities after graduation:

In today's day and age, getting a B.com degree is crucial for a commerce student, but it is not enough. Completing a degree cannot help in having a great career, one must have a professional certificate to have well established career after graduation. The webinar and the speaker of the webinar explained about the importance of career guidance, to explore and plan for future career endeavours based on the individual skill, interest and values. She helped in providing various options the students have and how to pursue them. she gave various route to aware of the different opportunities available after completing graduation.

1. IBPS (Institute of Banking personal selection) Exam, SBI probationary officer Exam, CAT (common Admission test) etc. she explained how to apply, how it is conducted (prelims, mains and interview) for the students who wish to make a career in Banking.
2. CAT (common Admission test) is a highly competitive and most important entrance Exam for not only for pursuing MBA but students can take 8 other competitive exams of IIM (Indian Institute of Management) can be taken up by the students.

A very interactive session was conducted with the students regarding English Grammar, vocabulary, how to use words, learning new words. She insisted in reading the newspaper and the importance of reading newspaper.

Completing a degree and doing Masters from a recognised university or college in India will be the ideal course for aspirants who wish to build a career in teaching, accounting and taxation sectors. She included CA and CFA as one of the fascinating career opportunities after B.com. To conclude she gave clarity to young minds wondering what to do after B.com.

At the end of the session feedback link was provided to the students for E-certificate

Profile of the Speaker:

Ms. Noor Sumayya

Assistant Director

Institute of Company Secretaries of India (ICSI)

Bengaluru Chapter

Ms. Noor Sumayya joined the Institute of Company Secretaries in the year

2010 as Assistant Education Officer and now holds the position of Assistant Director at Bengaluru Chapter of the ICSI. It's been a decade of working with the Institute, and it's an experiential journey to be with a professional body of this genre.

Prior to this she worked with Ernst & Young Private Limited as a Tax analyst and She has also worked with Aditya Birla Retail Limited.

She is a voracious reader and likes reading books on fiction and science.

Highlights from the Speaker's Session:

1. A brief of ICSI
2. Purpose of ICSI
3. Need for studying Company Secretary course
4. Demand and supply
5. Course Highlights:
  - a) Levels
  - b) Eligibility/ criteria for all the levels
  - c) Syllabus
  - d) Registration costs
  - e) Study materials and online classes
  - f) Assessment patterns
6. Scope of the course and opportunities abroad

Conclusion:

The programme was very useful for the students and the faculty. An insight on the Company Secretary course was given to the participants by the speaker. A very informative session for students who are aspiring to take up CS as their career and a great source of motivation for students who were not aware of the significance of the course. With the discussion of the various career advancement opportunities after the completion of CS,
