Objective:

The main motto to organize this FDP is to enable teachers to balance the professional demands and domestic compulsions.

Overview:

One day Orientation programme was organized by Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) on 24th, September 2021 in AV Hall for Teaching staff of our institution. There were 42 enthusiastic participants in total, who took part in this FDP. The program was enriching and intellectually stimulating for the participating faculty.

The Programme started with Welcome address by Prof. Nisha Joseph – Principal, St. Anne's Degree College for Women, who introduced the resource person and highlighted the importance and objectives of organizing faculty development programme. Dr. Sr. Margaret Fatima Mary, Secretary and administrator, St. Anne's Degree College for Women, offered shawl to the Resource person, Rev. Father Sony.

The session was presided over by the Resource person, Rev. Father Sony who firstly commended all the participants for their high spirit and attending the session. He further shared his virtuous movements during his school days. The following were the main highlights of the session I:

- Importance of Matha, Pitha, Guru and Deivam.
- Importance of Time and Stress Management at workplace and in own life.
- Major role of Mother in balancing family and work pressure.
- Respect and concern for elders.
- Spending quality time with family members.
- Importance and systematizing time for prayer and meditation.
- Avoid practice of unhealthy eating habits.

Session II: Activity

After 30 minutes break, Rev. Father organised a Group Activity in which he divided staffs into 7 groups. Father asked each group to discuss and list out the following:

- 2 Challenges we face at home.
- 2 Challenges we face at workplace.
- 3 Positive outcomes from session I.
- 2 Negative outcomes from session I.

Conclusion:

After the short break, Rev. Father concluded by emphasizing on the important role of a teacher in students' life and towards advancement of society. He also highlighted on cultivating reading habit which helps to improve concentration, ability to understand the feelings and beliefs of others, lessons of life and further he stressed on questioning aptitudes, and realistic dream through regular reading habits. At the end, Rev. Father thanked and probed the participants to feel free for sharing their experience from this program. Most of them talked about their enriching experience at the program.

Vote of Thanks:

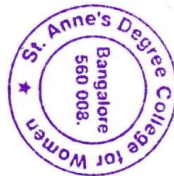

Asst. Professor, Maria Glory Antony, proposed vote of thanks for the program.

Feedback:

The Feedback was collected from all staffs who attended the session. The programme received a lot of positive feedback. Many sensed the orientation was lively and well organized. They felt that they could relate it to their day-to-day life.

STUDENT ORIENTATION PROGRAMME

2021-22

27th September to 01st October 2021

The IQAC has organised an Orientation programme for the new batch of under graduate students for the academic year 2021-22. The main objective of the programme was to help the students to amend to the new college environment through a series of sessions and activities. The programme was designed with a motive of attaining "Getting to know you and your new campus" among students.

Day 1: 27th September 2021 – Inaugural

Prayer service:

The programme commenced with a prayer by AICUF members. The prayer was inclusive of Scripture reading, reflection of the scripture, and screening the story. The prayer service was mainly to instil the moral values and make use of the talents in an effective way.

Lighting of the lamp:

Dignitaries of the college invoked god's blessings by lighting the lamp.

Presidential address:

Our college secretary Rev. Sr. Dr. Margaret Fatima Mary delivered an enlightening speech. She spoke about three major facets a student should have especially in their new journey into college. The first is every student should set a goal; she interacted with few students and asked about their future goals. Persistently secretary advised students to set a goal for themselves. Secondly she spoke about attitude, every student should have a set of emotions, beliefs and behaviours towards a particular object, person, thing or an event. Finally she concluded mentioned that as the result of the other two facets you would be able to have a powerful influence over behaviour and would be ready to "Create a just society" – the motto of our college.

Principal's Address:

The college principal Prof. Nisha Joseph, addressed the students about the college infrastructure and facilities available for them. She also introduced the teaching faculty
