Internal Compliance cell

Report

20th and 21st October 2022 - Students of Internal Compliance Cell attended a film festival and Panel discussion of 14 films bringing together documentary films/alternative cinema that shared stories and insights about people's resistance to oppressive regimes, dehumanizing socio-cultural practices and also positive stories of transformation and change. In collaboration with local educational institutions, organizations and networks this film festival was an attempt to initiate conversations through screening films revolving around broader issues related to women, youth and vulnerable communities like farmers, migration, displacement and sustainable livelihoods. This was organized at St. Joseph's University Auditorium, #36, Langford Road, Shanti Nagar, Bengaluru by Bangalore Film Society (BFS) in collaboration with Pedestrian Pictures, Rushes Film Club- St Joseph's University and Gamini Women's Collective.
