The Department of Commerce in collaboration with IQAC organised a Workshop on Entrepreneurial Training using AI Business Simulation of AIMAs Biz Lab for students of final year B.Com.

The primary agenda of the workshop was to introduce students to the emerging field of AI and business simulation, its uses in business and benefits. The secondary agenda was the promotion of Fire Bird Institute, Coimbatore which is one of the very few institutions that uses AIMAs Biz Lab for training post graduate students.

The workshop began with a welcome address by Ms. Pravalika Paul and presenting a handmade bouquet to the chief guest by Ms. Vennila, HOD – Department of Commerce.

Mr. Rajesh began the workshop with a brief introduction about Fire Bird Institute of Research & Management and AIMAs Biz Lab. He interacted with the students on the topic of 'pillars of a business' where he compared a business to that of a chair, which rests on 4 pillars (or legs). He used a well prepared and highly informative PowerPoint presentation which engaged the students from the very first minute.

The workshop was a hands-on experiential session where students could play the simulation game and understand various entrepreneurial concepts with the help of live market scenarios, process involved in strategic decision making and results of entrepreneurial decisions.

The highlight of the session was when he engaged the students and faculty in a live demonstration of the AI simulated game using AIMAs Biz Lab. A common login credential was provided to the students and detailed explanation was given for each component of the web page. The user friendly interface of the web page and a good connectivity ensured a smooth, glitch-free experience for the students.

By the end of the session, the students were able to understand the interdependence of different market forces and the strategic/analytical skills required to make sound business decisions. The AIMAs Biz Lab initiative is a progressive step towards preparing students for entrepreneurship/business.

Before ending the workshop, Mr. Rajesh distributed Certificates to the students for attending & participating in the program.

GUEST LECTURE ON

“THE CHANGING ROLE OF COMPANY SECRETARY”

Date: 05 July 2023

Resource Persons:

CS Pradeep B Kulkarni, Vice Chairman, ICSI-SIRC
CS Devika Satyanarayana, Secretary, ICSI Bengaluru Chapter

Co-ordinator: Ms. Khutaija Nazneen

Venue: AV Hall

The Department of Commerce in collaboration with IQAC and Institute of Company Secretaries of India (ICSI) organised a Guest Lecture on ‘The changing role of Company Secretary’ for students of First Year B.Com.

The session began with a welcome speech and inaugural address by Prof. Nisha Joseph, Principal who gave a brief insight into the importance of Company Secretaries in an organization. A sapling was presented to the resource persons by Ms. Vennila, HOD – Dept. of Commerce and Ms. Nazneen, Co-ordinator.

The main agenda of the guest lecture was to introduce Company Secretary (CS) as a career and professional option to students.

The session began with an introductory speech by CS Pradeep Kulkarni who gave the students an insight into the role of Company secretaries in 1900s and their changing role in the current years. He spoke extensively about the career prospects of a Company Secretary, their role & importance in the decision making process of organizations and job opportunities.

He continued to explain about the various roles and responsibilities of a Company Secretary as part of the Key Managerial Personnel in company. He encouraged and motivated the students to take up the profession by giving numerous examples of the name, fame and reputation that a CS (or any professional) commands in society.

CS Devika Satyanaraya took over and continued the session by telling her personal journey of becoming a Company Secretary and age or marital status should not be a hindrance to follow one's dream. Her short, yet powerful speech was an inspiration to all the girls sitting in the audience.

Finally, the session was concluded by explaining the process of registration with ICSI, the classes available for students (free of cost) at the institute and the end-to-end process of becoming a Company Secretary. CS Pradeep also gave a brief introduction to the subjects and exams conducted by ICSI. He ended the session with a sneak-peak into the salary package that aspiring CS students can expect after qualifying as a professional Company Secretary.

The students learnt a lot from the session and many were inspired to consider CS as a career option, something they were not aware of before this guest lecture. Overall, it was a great learning experience.
