REPORT ON

ALUMNI TALK SERIES

DREAMS TO REALITY: GOAL SETTING STRATEGIES

Date: 27 July 2023

Resource Persons: Ms. Sandhya

Venue: AV Hall

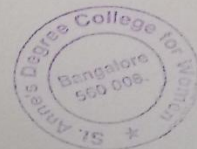

The Department of Commerce in collaboration with IQAC organised an Alumni talk series by a PG Commerce student Sandhya for students of First Year (2023-24).

The session began with an introduction to dreams, goals and the difference between the two commonly misunderstood terms. Ms. Sandhya spoke about the importance of goal setting and strategies to set effective goals.

The highlight of the session was a simple but effective method of goal setting – SMART Goals. She explained in detail about the factors considered to set Specific, Measured, Achievable, Relevant and Timed goals.

Ms. Sandhya also gave a visual demonstration of the process of breaking down goals from long term to short term. She gave a lot of practical experiences and examples to do the same. She encouraged the students to ask themselves few important questions, such as – 'What must I do today?', 'What should I do today?' and 'What could I do today?'. She explained these 3 questions with a lot of ease and simplicity.

Ms. Sandhya ended the session by discussing and re-iterating the steps to be followed to convert dreams into reality. She gave a of emphasis on moving past failure and taking action which definitely inspired the students to work hard to achieve their goals.
