Department of Rehabilitation Science

REPORT

The Department of Rehabilitation Science organized an Intercollegiate Fest "Ignite Fusion - IF 2024. The fest commenced on 29th May 2024. The staff and students together organized the fest in accordance to the Sustainability and sustainable development. This Fest made the students and all the participants gain a better understanding on the sustainable development practices.

The Fest was inaugurated by all the officials, especially the Chief Guest Mr. Sagar Gowda, the Guest of honor Mr. Sudhakar. G. It was followed by the Welcome Address given by Asst. Prof. Sobha T and various videos about the Glimpse of the Department. The Chief Guest and the Guest of Honor gave an insightful speech which enlightened the gathering. There was a Thematic Dance presentation about the importance of saving water. The formal session was concluded with the Vote of thanks by Asst. Prof. Danila D.

The Competitions started with eight events in which there were participation from seven colleges. The students who participated in the events gained more idea about sustainable development. All the events were conducted where St. Francis College won the Overall Winners and St. Anne's Evening College won the Overall Runners.

Overall, the Fest made a revival in the understanding of the goals of sustainability and the importance of Sustainable Development. The Fest was a grand success and it was covered by Visthara News Channel.

REPORT

The Department of Humanities organised the Department Fest on June 11, 2024, St. Anne's Degree College for Women, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), hosted an engaging and vibrant event "Prakruthi - Media Merges Mind" at the college auditorium. The event was a remarkable showcase of talent and creativity, featuring various on-stage performances including a fashion show, group dance, duet dance, and mime acts.

The program commenced at 10:00 AM with an enthusiastic audience, which included students, faculty members, and esteemed guests. The chief guest for the occasion was Reethu Raj Purohit, a distinguished journalist from CNN-NEWS18, who was joined by another notable chief guest, Pravin Sam, a lyricist and choreographer. Their presence added a touch of glamour and expertise to the event

The fashion show was the first highlight of the day, where students presented a range of innovative and stylish outfits, reflecting both contemporary and traditional themes. This was followed by a series of lively and energetic group and duet dance performances that captivated the audience with their choreography and synchronisation.

The mime acts, which were both entertaining and thought-provoking, showcased the students' ability to convey powerful messages through non-verbal expression. These performances underscored the event's theme of blending media and mental creativity.

The event was graced by the presence of Lev. S. Dr Margaret, Secretary; Prof. Nisha Joseph, Principal; and Ms Priya N, Head of the Department of Humanities, who all contributed to the success of the event with their support and encouragement.

Overall, "Prakruthi - Media Merges Mind" was a successful celebration of student talent and creativity, demonstrating the vibrant cultural environment fostered at St. Anne's Degree College for Women. The performances were met with enthusiastic applause and appreciation from the audience, making it a memorable event for all involved.
